An Act to repeal the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries Act 1978 and provide for the responsible Ministry to have adequate powers to obtain information and prevent adverse effects on agriculture.

The Parliament of the Cook Islands enacts as follows—

- 1 Title
This Act is the Agriculture Bill 2020.
- 2 Commencement
This Act comes into force on 1 July 2020.

Part 1 Preliminary matters

- 3 Purpose
The purpose of this Act is to—
  - (a) provide for the development of sustainable agricultural practices;
  - (b) provide for new data collection powers and procedures to be used in relation to agriculture;
  - (c) regulate the agriculture industry;
  - (d) provide for inspectors and specify their powers and the procedures they must follow;
  - (e) enable the regulatory regime in this Act to apply to all of the Cook Islands:

Agriculture Bill

- (f) enable the establishment of specific advisory committees to assist with the carrying out of functions under this Act.

4 Application

This Act applies to all of the Cook Islands.

5 Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,— adverse effect on agriculture or the agricultural sector, in relation to any thing (including land) or activity,—

- (a) means—
- (i) the thing or activity, if left alone, will, or is likely to, decrease agricultural production; or
  - (ii) the thing is likely to spread disease among plants or crops, or ruin them; or
  - (iii) the thing is a weed and likely to spread into neighbouring properties; or
  - (iv) the thing is a pest that is not subject to the Biosecurity Act or the Pesticides Act; and
- (b) includes activities that have the effect set out in paragraph (a), even if they are authorised by a licence or permit under another enactment

agricultural production means all production related to the agricultural sector, including the production of crops, livestock, and pollinators

Biosecurity Act means the Biosecurity Act 2008

data collector means a person referred to as a data collector in section 16

entity means a person who or thing that is recognised under the laws of the Cook Islands as having a legal personality and is able to sue and be sued in the High Court of the Cook Islands

head of the ministry means the person for the time being in charge of the Ministry

input to agriculture includes anything used to grow and harvest agricultural products inspector means a person referred to as an inspector in section 24

Island Government has the meaning given in the Island Government Act 2012-2013

Minister or responsible Minister means the Minister of the Crown who is, with the authority of the Prime Minister, for the time being responsible for the administration of this Act

ministry or responsible ministry means the department of State that is, with the authority of the Prime Minister, for the time being responsible for the administration of this Act

Ministry of Finance and Economic Management Act means the Ministry of Finance and Economic Management Act 1995-1996

Pesticides Act means the Pesticides Act 1987

repealed Act means the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries Act 1978

Agriculture Bill

stakeholder, in relation to agriculture or the ministry, includes, without limitation,—

- (a) farmers:
- (b) wholesalers and retailers of agricultural products:
- (c) importers and exporters of agricultural products:
- (d) Island Governments.

6 Act binds the Crown

This Act binds the Crown.

Part 2 Responsible ministry and its committees

Subpart 1—The ministry

7 Purpose of ministry

The purpose of the ministry is to manage the agricultural sector in the Cook Islands, and to facilitate sustainable development in that sector, in accordance with—

- (a) this Act, the enactments listed in Schedule 1, and any other relevant enactments whether under its administration or not; and
- (b) relevant policies, strategies, and plans; and
- (c) the ministry's vision, mission, and values.

8 Functions of ministry

The ministry has the following functions:

- (a) encouraging sustainable agricultural production, including—
  - (i) the production of crops, livestock, and pollinators; and
  - (ii) managing crop and livestock genetic resources; and
  - (iii) protecting the welfare of livestock and other farmed animals:
- (b) regulating agricultural health and improving the biosecurity status of the Cook Islands in accordance with the Biosecurity Act:
- (c) regulating pesticides in accordance with the Pesticides Act; and
- (d) supporting the relevant ministry with responsibility for food safety legislation, initiatives, and policy:
- (e) undertaking agricultural research and development:
- (f) formulating and implementing plans, policies, and strategies for the agricultural sector:
- (g) formulating and implementing agricultural projects, programmes, and initiatives:
- (h) supporting the marketing and use of agricultural inputs, including—
  - (i) pesticides; and
  - (ii) crop seeds; and
  - (iii) fertilisers; and
  - (iv) in co-ordination with other relevant ministries, livestock medicines;

Agriculture Bill

- (i) developing quality certification schemes and value chains for the agricultural sector:
- (j) supporting stakeholders' participation in agriculture:
- (k) managing forestry, including forest plantations:
- (l) providing advisory and extension services and capacity development for ministry personnel and stakeholders:
- (m) facilitating access to finance and investment and partnerships in the agricultural sector:
- (n) facilitating access to domestic and overseas markets for agricultural products:
- (o) monitoring and assessing the agricultural sector, including through the collection, assessment, and reporting of agricultural data and statistics:
- (p) supporting Island Governments with the formulation, implementation, monitoring, and assessment of agricultural policies and strategies (including by the use of memoranda of understanding).

9 Guiding principles

The ministry must, to the extent reasonably practicable and appropriate in the context, have regard to the following principles when performing its functions:

- (a) the desirability of good governance, including transparency, accountability, and non-discrimination; and
- (b) the need for input from stakeholders in agriculture, including—
  - (i) Island Governments and others in the Pa Enua with an interest in agriculture; and
  - (ii) stakeholders in partnership with the ministry, into planning, decision making, and project or programme implementation; and
- (c) the desirability of carrying out statutory functions based on science and evidence-based decision making; and
- (d) the desirability of adopting a risk-based approach to decision making; and
- (e) the desirability of promoting the use of innovative and appropriate agricultural practices; and
- (f) the desirability of promoting the best interests of Cook Islands society and existing traditions and customary practices and rights; and
- (g) the desirability of providing direct service delivery to stakeholders, especially stakeholders in the Pa Enua; and
- (h) ensuring that agriculture practices are environmentally sustainable, including in relation to native plants; and
- (i) the need to promote human rights and equity, including an equitable development approach that acknowledges and seeks to address the different levels of development across the Cook Islands.

10 Functions of head of ministry

The head of the ministry has the following functions:

- (a) ensuring the effective and efficient operation and administration of the ministry, this Act, the enactments listed in the Schedule, and any other relevant enactment:

Agriculture Bill

- (b) providing advice to the Minister on matters relevant to the ministry's purpose:
- (c) assisting or advising the Minister to carry out the Minister's functions and powers:
- (d) managing the formulation, implementation, monitoring, and evaluation of policies and strategies relevant to the ministry's purpose:
- (e) providing annual reports of the ministry for approval by the Minister:
- (f) representing and articulating the views of the Ministry, including on boards, councils, non-government bodies, and international forums, as required by the Minister, this Act, the enactments listed in Schedule 1, and any other relevant enactment:
- (g) any other functions of the head of the ministry—
  - (i) given to that head under this Act, the regulations made under this Act, the enactments listed in Schedule 1, and any other relevant enactment; or
  - (ii) assigned to the head of the ministry by the Minister and reasonably expected of the head of the ministry to perform, under relevant governance arrangements.

11 Operation of ministry subject to other Acts

The ministry, as a department of State, is subject to the provisions of—

- (a) the Public Service Act 2009 (which, among other matters, provides for the appointment of the head and other employees of the ministry and the delegation of powers vested in the head of the ministry; and
- (b) the Ministry of Finance and Economic Management Act 1995-96) (which sets out the rules governing the finances of the ministry).

Subpart 2—Committees of the ministry

12 Establishment of committees

- (1) The head of the ministry may establish committees for the purposes of this Act, the enactments listed in Schedule 1 (other than the Biosecurity Act), and any other relevant enactment.
- (2) The responsibilities of the head of the ministry in carrying out his or her functions are not limited or otherwise affected by the establishment of any committee under this section or by the establishment of 1 or more committees under the Biosecurity Act.

13 Functions and membership of committees

- (1) When a committee is to be established under section 12, the head of the ministry must—
  - (a) determine the purpose, functions, and membership of the committee; and
  - (b) appoint the members of the committee and determine their tenure and terms of reference; and
  - (c) regulate the procedures of the committee.
- (2) In determining the membership of a committee, the head of the ministry must—

Agriculture Bill

- (a) take into account any relevant policy on the composition of committees; and
- (b) apply any regulations made under this Act regulating the membership of committees; and
- (c) ensure that the members of a committee—
  - (i) have the required level of technical expertise necessary for the purpose of the committee to be achieved and its functions to be carried out; and
  - (ii) where feasible, are also representative of the cross section of stakeholder interests relevant to the purpose and functions of the committee.
- (3) A Member of Parliament is not eligible to be appointed to a committee.
- (4) A person is not deemed to be, or entitled to be, employed as a public servant because of their appointment as a member of a committee.
- (5) Unless authorised by the head of the ministry in writing, a member of a committee has no authority to bind or speak on behalf of the ministry, the head of the ministry, or the committee.
- (6) The head of the ministry may at any time—
  - (a) dissolve any committee established under this Act or revoke the appointment of its members; or
  - (b) dismiss any member of a committee for misconduct or other sufficient cause.

14 Remuneration

- (1) A committee member is entitled to fees, allowances, and other expenses related to his or her work as a committee member that are approved by the head of the ministry and payable from the ministry's funds.
- (2) A committee member is not entitled to fees or allowances if he or she is concurrently a public servant, or is employed by, or is a member of, a board of a public body.

15 Notice of establishment and dissolution

- (1) Notice of the establishment or dissolution of a committee must be published by the ministry in the Cook Islands Government Gazette and a newspaper circulating at least once a week in the Cook Islands.
- (2) Any notice of a decision to establish or dissolve a committee must specify the name of the committee, and the purpose of its establishment or dissolution, as the case may be.
- (3) The establishment or dissolution of a committee is valid even if a notice is not published under subsection (1).

Part 3 Data collection

16 Role and appointment of data collectors

- (1) The head of the ministry may carry out all the functions and exercise all the powers of a data collector under this Act.

Agriculture Bill

- (2) The role of a data collector is to collect data for the ministry for 1 or more of the purposes set out in section 17.
- (3) The head of the ministry may appoint, under the Public Service Act 2009, any employee of the ministry, to be a data collector and may revoke any appointment.
- (4) The head of the ministry may appoint any public servant or other person who is not an employee of the ministry to be a data collector, but that person is not to be treated as an employee of the ministry by reason of that appointment.
- (5) The head of the ministry may designate any office within the ministry so that any person holding that office can act as a data collector.
- (6) All data collectors must—
  - (a) carry their formal identification, as issued by the ministry, when performing their duties; and
  - (b) must produce that identification when reasonably requested to do so by any person.

17 Purpose of data collection

The purpose of data collection is to enable the collection of information to enable the ministry to—

- (a) measure agricultural production;
- (b) identify or measure a risk to agricultural production;
- (c) take informed responses to invasive species outbreaks or other plant or animal emergencies.

18 Collection of data

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), a data collector may—
  - (a) require any person or entity to provide or produce information or records owned by, held by, or in the knowledge of that person or entity that are reasonably necessary to be provided or produced for 1 or more of the purposes in section 17; and
  - (b) make notes and take copies of the information and records.
- (2) A data collector must return the information or records to the relevant person or entity—
  - (a) immediately after making notes or taking copies of the information or records; or
  - (b) in cases where notes or copies of the information or records are not yet made or taken, immediately after the expiry of the period that is reasonably necessary to make notes or take copies.
- (3) This section does not apply to information and records that are—
  - (a) commercially confidential; or
  - (b) subject to any privilege recognised in a court of law.
- (4) A data collector may, for 1 or more of the purposes in section 17, enter into any place (other than a dwelling house) without consent and do 1 or more of the following:
  - (a) collect data;
  - (b) install a data collection device;

Agriculture Bill

- (c) retrieve a data collection device.

19 Protection from disclosure

- (1) The ministry may use the notes or copies of information or records made under this Act only for the purpose for which those notes or copies were made.
- (2) The ministry may not disclose to any member of the public—
  - (a) the identity of any person who or entity that provides or produces information or records, except with the written consent of that person or entity; or
  - (b) the notes or copies of information or records made or taken.
- (3) This section—
  - (a) overrides the Official Information Act 2008; but
  - (b) is subject to any contrary order of the High Court.

20 Privilege

- (1) Except for the purpose of a prosecution for an offence against this Act, any information or records provided or produced under this Act, or notes or copies of that information or those records taken under this Act, are privileged and cannot be used in evidence in any proceedings before any court, tribunal, or other body.
- (2) No information or records provided or produced under this Act, or copies of that information or those records taken under this Act, may be used for, or in connection with, the assessment or levying of any tax or be used as evidence of the assessment or levying of any tax.

21 Notice to provide or produce information or records

- (1) A data collector may issue a notice to a person or entity to provide or produce information or records owned by, held by, or in the knowledge of that person or entity, if that person or entity refuses an oral request from a data collector to provide or produce that information or those records.
- (2) A notice issued under subsection (1) must—
  - (a) be in writing; and
  - (b) be addressed to the person who or entity that is to provide or produce the information or records; and
  - (c) specify—
    - (i) the information or records to be provided or produced;
    - (ii) the reasons for requiring the information or records to be provided or produced;
    - (iii) the date by which that information or those records must be provided or produced;
    - (iv) whether notes or copies, or both, will be made or taken of the information or records; and
  - (d) explain—
    - (i) that the person or entity issued with the notice is not required to provide or produce information or records that are commercially confidential or subject to a privilege available in a court of law; and

Agriculture Bill

- (ii) the provisions relating to protection from disclosure and privilege set out in sections 19 and 20.
- (3) A person or an entity required by notice to provide or produce information or records under this section must be given a reasonable period of time to provide or produce that information or those records.

22 Offences and penalties

- (1) A person who or entity that fails to comply with a notice issued under section 21 commits an offence and is liable on conviction,—
  - (a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding $10,000; or
  - (b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding $50,000.
- (2) A failure to comply with a notice includes the provision or production of incorrect or incomplete information or records either—
  - (a) knowingly; or
  - (b) without due regard for whether the information or records provided or produced are correct or complete.

Part 4 Inspectors

23 Application of this Part

- (1) The application of this Part is subject to the Pesticides Act and the Biosecurity Act.
- (2) If any matter can be dealt with under the Biosecurity Act or the Pesticides Act, it must be dealt with under that Act rather than this Act.

24 Appointment of inspectors

- (1) The head of the ministry may appoint, under the Public Service Act 2009, any employee of the ministry to be an inspector, and may revoke any appointment.
- (2) The head of the ministry may appoint any public servant or other person who is not an employee of the ministry to be an inspector under this section, but a person is not to be treated as an employee of the ministry because of that appointment.
- (3) The head of the ministry may, with the approval of the Minister, designate any office within the ministry so that any person holding that office can act as an inspector for the purposes of performing the functions of the Ministry.
- (4) All inspectors appointed under this section must act in accordance with any direction given by the head of the ministry and, if they are full-time officers or employees of the Public Service, are not entitled to any additional remuneration in respect of their appointment under this section.
- (5) All inspectors must—
  - (a) carry their formal identification, as issued by the ministry, when performing their duties; and
  - (b) produce that identification when reasonably requested to do so by a member of the public.

25 Powers of inspectors

- (1) Inspectors may,—
- (a) after notifying the owner and occupier of their intention to do so, and only with the consent of the owner or occupier, enter onto any place and take, for the purpose of testing and analysis, samples and photographs of anything that may be reasonably considered to have had, to be having, or to be likely to have an adverse effect on agriculture or the agricultural sector:
  - (b) enter (with or without the consent of the owner or occupier) any place (other than a dwelling house) to undertake—
    - (i) an investigation of an agricultural incident (for example, a complaint that paraquat used in high winds has damaged crops in a neighbouring farm):
    - (ii) a damage assessment (for example, an assessment of how much damage to the crops has been caused by the paraquat):
    - (iii) remediation (for example, removal of the paraquat-damaged crops from the farm):
  - (c) require any person apparently doing any act or controlling anything that may be reasonably considered to have had, be having, or likely to have an adverse effect on agriculture or the agricultural sector to state his or her full name and usual place of residence:
  - (d) require the production of information or records held by any person or entity relating to any of the following:
    - (i) anything that may be reasonably considered to have had, be having, or to be likely to have an adverse effect on agriculture or the agricultural sector:
    - (ii) any licence, permit, or authority relating to any activity or enterprise that may be reasonably considered to have had, to be having, or to be likely to have an adverse effect on agriculture or the agricultural sector:
    - (iii) any other matter or thing involving the lawful performance by the ministry of its functions:
  - (e) order that anything that may be reasonably considered to have had, be having, or to be likely to have an adverse effect on agriculture or the agricultural sector be dealt with in a certain manner so as to remove, prevent, or minimise its adverse effects:
  - (f) if there are reasonable grounds to do so, order that certain things—
    - (i) be treated as having had, having, or likely to have an adverse effect on agriculture or the agricultural sector; and
    - (ii) be removed from the place and deposited at an approved place.
- (2) Any person who or entity that complies with an order issued under subsection (1) is entitled to be compensated or reimbursed for reasonable costs or expenses incurred in complying with that order.

26 Precautionary notices

- (1) This section applies if an inspector reasonably considers that an activity, matter, or other thing has had, is having, or is likely to have an adverse effect on agriculture or the agricultural sector.
- (2) If this section applies the inspector may issue a notice requiring compliance, as specified in subsection (4), by any person who or entity that is apparently in control of, or associated with, the activity, matter, or other thing.
- (3) A notice issued under this section must—
  - (a) be in writing; and
  - (b) be addressed to the person who or entity that is apparently in control of, or associated with, the activity, matter, or other thing; and
  - (c) state the date by which the person or entity is to comply with the notice.
- (4) A notice issued under this section may require any or all of the following:
  - (a) that the person or entity issued with the notice provide information in relation to the activity, matter, or other thing to satisfy the head of the ministry that no adverse effect has occurred, is occurring, or is likely to occur to agriculture or the agriculture sector from the activity, matter, or other thing:
  - (b) that alternative activities or operating techniques be considered and employed to avoid, or decrease the adverse or likely adverse effect on agriculture or the agricultural sector:
  - (c) that improvements or alterations be made in relation to the activity, matter, or other thing, to the satisfaction of the head of the ministry, to cease, avoid or decrease the adverse or likely adverse effect on agriculture or the agricultural sector:
  - (d) any other requirement, as determined by the head of the ministry, to ensure that the activity, matter, or other thing is not adversely affecting or likely to adversely affect agriculture or the agriculture sector.
- (5) The person who or entity that is issued with a notice under this section must be given a reasonable time specified in the notice to comply with the notice.
- (6) A notice may be issued under this section despite any approval, licence, or permit having been granted for the activity, matter, or other thing.

27 Notice to cease

- (1) A notice may be issued under this section regardless of whether a notice has been served under section 26.
- (2) The head of the ministry may issue a notice under this section if he or she reasonably considers that an act or activity is adversely affecting or likely to adversely affect agriculture or the agriculture sector.
- (3) A notice issued under this section must—
  - (a) be in writing:
  - (b) be directed to any person who or entity that the head of the ministry believes is carrying out or has some control over the act or activity:
  - (c) specify the act or activity, and the adverse or likely adverse effect on agriculture or the agricultural sector:

Agriculture Bill

- (d) require that the act or activity cease until the head of the ministry is satisfied that the adverse effect, or likelihood of adverse effect, no longer exists.
- (4) A notice may be issued under this section despite any approval, licence, or permit having been granted for the act or activity.

28 Offences and penalties

- (1) A person or an entity commits an offence if that person or entity—
  - (a) hinders or obstructs a data collector or an inspector in the performance of his or her duties under this Act or in the exercise of any lawful power; or
  - (b) induces or incites any other person to hinder or obstruct a data collector or an inspector acting in accordance with this Act; or
  - (c) falsely represents by words or conduct to be a data collector or an inspector or who otherwise impersonates an inspector; or
  - (d) fails to comply with a lawful requirement, direction, or order made or given by a data collector or an inspector; or
  - (e) provides false or misleading information when required to provide information under this Act.
- (2) A person who or entity that commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable on conviction,—
  - (a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding $10,000;
  - (b) in all other cases, to a fine not exceeding $50,000.
- (3) A person or an entity that fails to comply with a notice issued under section 26 commits an offence and is liable on conviction,—
  - (a) if there is no adverse effect on agriculture or the agricultural sector, to a fine not exceeding $10,000;
  - (b) if there is an adverse effect on agriculture or the agricultural sector, to a fine not exceeding $50,000.
- (4) A person or entity commits an offence if that person or entity—
  - (a) has been served with a notice issued under section 27 and fails to comply with its terms; or
  - (b) has been served with a notice issued under section 27 and causes or permits any other person or entity to act in breach of its requirements; or
  - (c) knowingly acts in breach of the requirements of a notice issued under section 27, whether or not that person or entity has been served with the notice.
- (5) A person who or entity that commits an offence under subsection (4) is liable on conviction—
  - (a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding $10,000, and, if the offence is a continuing offence, an additional fine not exceeding $100 per day;
  - (b) in all other cases, to a fine not exceeding $50,000, and, if the offence is a continuing offence, an additional fine not exceeding $500 per day.
- (6) If a company commits an offence under this Act, any officer or agent of the company who authorised, assented to, or participated in, or by his or her neglect or omission contributed to, the commission of the offence—

Agriculture Bill

- (a) is a party to and may be found guilty of the offence; and
- (b) is liable to the penalty provided for the offence.

Part 5 Minor offences

29 Minor offences

- (1) If an inspector or data collector has reason to believe that a person has committed a minor offence, the inspector or data collector may issue a minor offence notice requiring the person to pay a fine of the relevant amount prescribed by regulations.
- (2) The notice must—
  - (a) be in the form prescribed by regulations; and
  - (b) be issued by delivering the notice, or a copy of it, personally to the person who is alleged to have committed the offence.
- (3) Every person who is required to pay a fine under subsection (1) may either—
  - (a) elect to pay the fine within 7 working days, in which case a receipt must be issued and the person is not liable to any further prosecution of any kind in respect of that offence; or
  - (b) elect not to pay the fine either immediately or within 7 working days of the minor offence notice having been issued, in which event that person is liable to prosecution under section 30.
- (4) Every minor offence notice must contain—
  - (a) those particulars of the alleged minor offence that are sufficient to fairly inform a person of the time, place, and nature of the alleged offence together with any other details that are prescribed; and
  - (b) the amount of the fine in respect of the minor offence; and
  - (c) a statement of the consequences if the person served with the notice does not pay the fine within 7 working days:
  - (d) the date on which a prosecution in the High Court will be commenced, being a date not less than 7 working days from the date of the alleged offence.
- (5) In this section and section 30, minor offence means an offence against this Act prescribed in regulations as a minor offence.

30 Prosecution of minor offences

- (1) Every person served with a minor offence notice and who does not pay the fine within 7 working days of being served is liable to prosecution in respect of the offence to which the notice relates and on conviction is liable to a fine not exceeding $500.
- (2) Despite anything to the contrary in any other Act, every prosecution of a minor offence may be commenced by an inspector or data collector against a person served with a minor offence notice by filing the notice in the High Court and without further service of any documents on the offender.
- (3) Every prosecution commenced under this section may be proceeded with in accordance with the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Act 1980-81.

Part 6
Miscellaneous

31 Island Governments

- (1) In accordance with its functions, and subject to the Island Government Act 2012-13, the ministry may work co-operatively, collaboratively, or in partnership with Island Governments.
- (2) When performing any work in accordance with this section, an employee or representative of an Island Government is entitled to—
  - (a) exercise any power or carry out any function delegated in accordance with the Public Service Act 2009 or any other applicable law; and
  - (b) all legal protections and indemnities provided by this Act, the Public Service Act 2009, or any other applicable law.
